Statement: Rep. Brooks Resignation from Leadership Position

Madison...The Assembly Republican leadership team issued the following statement concerning Rep. Robert Brooks.

“On behalf of all Assembly Republicans, we condemn the offensive remarks that were made to our colleagues by Rep. Brooks last summer. As members of the Assembly Republican leadership team, we have accepted Rep. Brook’s resignation as assistant majority leader in the Assembly.

“The three caucus members reported this incident last July to the chief clerk who dealt with it immediately. We believe the issue had been appropriately resolved but respect Rep. Brook’s decision to resign his leadership post. The position will remain vacant for the rest of the session. The caucus will select new leadership positions in November following the election.”
