PRESS RELEASE

DATE OF RELEASE: 09-14-2021
INCIDENT #: D21-01314
SUBJECT: Homicide investigation
AUTHORIZED BY: Sheriff Kevin Bygd

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

---

As an update to the Dunn County Sheriff's Office's homicide investigation, Sheriff Kevin Bygd has released the names of the four victims found in the abandoned SUV in Sheridan Township.

The victims are as follows.

Nitoshia Lee Flug-Presley, female, 30 years old of Stillwater, MN

Matthew Isiah Pettus, male, 26 years old of Saint Paul, MN

Loyace Foreman III, male, 35 years old of Saint Paul, MN

Jasmine Christine Sturm, female, 30 years old of Saint Paul, MN

Autopsies were performed on all four victims on Monday by Ramsey County Medical Examiner's Office and the preliminary examination shows that all four victims died from gunshot wounds.

The Dunn County Sheriff's Office is working hard on a thorough investigation with many other agencies to bring a swift end to this investigation to insure justice is served for these four victims as soon as possible.

"Our hearts go out to the family and friends of these victims. I wish we could release more details of our investigation but we have to balance the public's desire to know the details with running the risk of harming our investigation and losing evidence for building a good homicide case", said Sheriff Kevin Bygd.

A press conference is scheduled for 4:00p.m.today in the multi-purpose room on the first floor of the Dunn County Judicial Center at 615 Stokke Parkway, Menomonie, WI if media outlets would like to be there.
