THE STATE OF WISCONSIN'S EMERGENCY MOTION TO AMEND BAIL

The State of Wisconsin, by Assistant District Attorney Alexandra Keyes, requests the court revoke the defendants bail. In the alternative, the State requests the Court issue an emergency order returning the defendant to the Dane County Jail because she appears to have been released in violation of the courts bail order. The reason behind this request is that the defendant is currently at the Waukesha County Jail in ICE Custody facing deportation in the immediate future. In order to hold her accountable for these crimes against her and comply with victim's rights, the State is requesting an emergency order either revoking the defendant's bail or an order to return her to our jurisdiction. Following the issuance of those orders, an emergency bail hearing should be held at the court's earliest convenience.

The defendant is in violation of her bail conditions at this time because it appears the Dane County jail released the defendant without complying with the court's ordered bail conditions. The defendant was ordered by the court to not to be released without being affixed with a GPS monitor and alcohol monitor. It appears the jail released the defendant into ICE custody after business hours last night without complying with the court order She is not under Pretrial Services monitoring at this time despite that being a condition of her release.
